Are you looking to live in a rural setting away from the hustle and bustle? This beautiful and well-maintained split-entry bungalow is waiting for you and your family, even with a separate entrance to one half of the basement that could be easily turned into an in-law suite to help with the mortgage. As you enter the front door and go up you are greeted by a large family room made for entertaining or to just cozy up with the family. Straight forward is the large eat-in kitchen and also a formal dining room for those special occasions. Off the kitchen through the patio doors is a nice deck to enjoy that quiet outdoor lifestyle and view the green backyard with no neighbours to the rear. Follow the hallway to the main floor bath and three large bedrooms. When you go downstairs you will find a large recreation room with a full bath. The other side of the basement can easily be turned into an in-law suite or make it your workshop and storage. Outside you can enjoy the well-manicured lot with the detached double garage to store your toys for the nearby ATV and snowmobile trails. There are 3 mini-splits to help keep the house comfy all year round. Contact your favourite REALTOR® for your private viewing. (id:24320)
