Who doesn't want to unwind on an island :)
This charming seasonal cottage would be a perfect choice. Only a 25 minute drive from Moncton you could be enjoying sunset views or take a relaxing boat ride any time this summer. The shady trees offer a break from the sun after you enjoyed the serene beach. A generously sized deck with an amazing water view is a great place to have a family bbq. Inside there is a lovely living room with an immense amount of natural light from all the large windows. It leads to a well laid out kitchen, bar and dining room that also has the washer and dryer off to the side. The main bedroom is surrounded by beautiful wood panels and has a closet. The other bedroom is perfect for kids or guests with the bunkbeds and a dresser for storage. The bathroom has a full size shower and tub!! You can also rent garden space if you enjoy growing your own food. This private getaway is all ready for summer fun!!
