Are you looking for a quiet and private home with all the enjoyments of the county, but just a short drive to the amenities of the city? Check out this beautiful spacious three bedroom bungalow on a private lot just off Highway 15 which offers easy access to Moncton and the communities in between. This home sits on a large landscaped property with three separate decks making the transition from indoor to outdoor living easy and inviting. Inside, you will be wowed by the inviting foyer and the modern open-concept view to the generously proportioned living areas. The kitchen has stylish white cabinets and lots of space to work! The basement is completely finished, and offers a large 20x26 family room and a laundry room with loads of storage space. Call now for more details or to schedule your own showing. (id:24320)
