Brunswick, E5T2R8

There is history here in your new back yard, Its in the waters of Belleisle Bay, Perfect picture postcard I must say, Let me fill you in on the past & present today. The Springfield steam boat, is what the name was, starting in 1891,It worked the bay & carried 45 tones, It burned while tied to the wharf, Has been said the boiler drifted down Belleisle Bay near Hatfield Point town, This is where you can see from your back yard turf that this piece once was a part of Springfield steam boat. Jump in your kayak and paddle around it, Touch a piece of history as where it sits still a mystery. Check out the beautiful property as now Ive given you some history, This home you will adore once you walk in the front door, wooden beams on the ceiling, A kitchen unique and very appealing. The ensuite to your bedroom is on the main floor ,Check out the mudroom so much room galore. Upstairs you'll find a full bathroom and claw tub, features added throughout the accents of this home shows through, The largest room you can see has not three but four doors for added space to store your extras just in case. Lets head outdoors, Look at the patio built around the tree, Great spot for the kids, adults too, Sit around the fire and enjoy the view, The Bay & mountains
