520 Mary's Point, Harvey, New Brunswick,
E4H2N5

Welcome to 520 Marys Point Road, one of Albert County's oldest homes built in 1853. This large 5 bedroom 2 bathroom home has tons of character offering the country farmhouse feel but has also seen many upgrades such as: new floors, 11 new windows, spray foam basement & ceiling, new electrical, foundation and drainage added. Outside is beautifully landscaped with mature trees and flowers. Home features old wooden doors, original staircase, plaster ceiling showing history while mixed with the old wood. Original softwood floors upstairs, large crown moulding and wainscotting gives the comfort feeling of entering your grandmas house for a weekend sleepover. The property has walking trails, is located across from the ocean floor, near the Marys Point bird sanctuary & protected wetlands. It is not often we see properties available in Mary's Point, here is your chance to live in this quiet location or even use it as a summer home or air bnb.
